ITINERARY

DAY-WISE PLAN

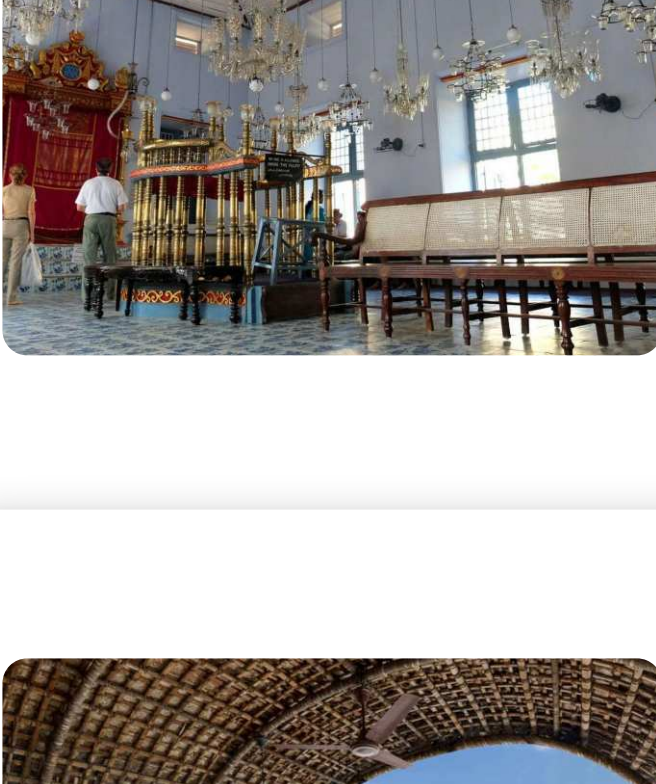

DAY 1

Kochi

Arrival in Kochi: Fort Kochi arrival and first explorations

Day 1 — Arrival in Kochi: Fort Kochi arrival and first explorations, Night stay: Kochi

Arrive at Cochin International Airport and transfer to your heritage hotel in Fort Kochi. Spend the afternoon wandering the atmospheric waterfront — view the iconic Chinese fishing nets, visit St. Francis Church and the Dutch Palace, and stroll through the art galleries and café-lined lanes of Princess Street. In the evening enjoy a relaxed seafood dinner by the sea and a gentle walk along the promenade to settle into Kerala's coastal rhythm.

DAY 2

Kochi

Kochi cultural immersion: Markets, spice trails and a performing-arts evening

After breakfast, explore Mattancherry: the Jewish Quarter, the historic synagogue and the vibrant spice markets where you can sample local pepper, cardamom and cloves. Visit the contemporary art spaces and the Indo-Portuguese museum, then pause for a late lunch in a café serving Kerala specialities. In the evening attend a traditional Kathakali or Koodiyattam performance to experience Kerala's classical arts up close.

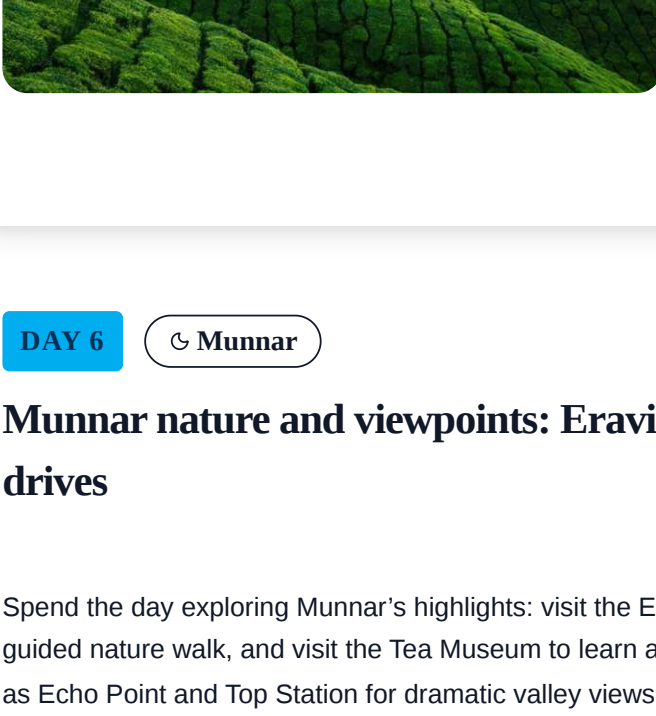

DAY 3

Alleppey / Kumarakom (Backwaters)

Transfer to the backwaters: Alleppey/Kumarakom houseboat cruise

Drive south to the backwater region (Alleppey or Kumarakom). Embark on a private or shared houseboat mid-morning and begin a leisurely cruise through the Vembanad Lake's interconnected canals. Glide past coconut groves, paddy fields and village life; enjoy freshly prepared Kerala cuisine on board. Spend the night anchored in a peaceful stretch of backwater, listening to the evening chorus of birds and water.

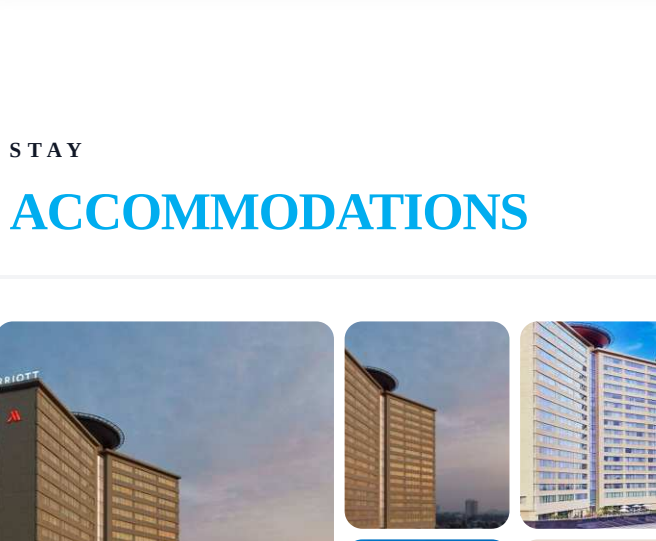

DAY 4

Alleppey / Kumarakom (Backwaters)

Backwater village experiences and onward relaxation

Disembark after breakfast and opt for a short village walk or a canoe/kuvalam ride to see local life: toddy tapping, coir-making and small hamlets on the water's edge.Return for a relaxing afternoon at a waterfront RESORT or continue with a focused boat tour to birdwatch and photograph the marshes. End the day with a lakeside dinner and a calm night amid the backwaters.

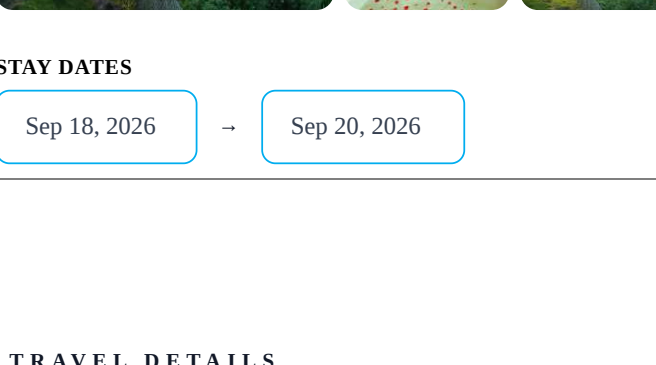

DAY 5

Munnar

Journey to Munnar: Hill station arrival and tea-garden stroll

Transfer by road into the Western Ghats toward Munnar, enjoying scenic mountain and valley views en route.Check into a hilltop hotel or plantation bungalow and unwind before exploring the nearest tea estate.Walk through manicured tea terraces at sunset for panoramic vistas of rolling green hills, and sample locally grown teas at a focused tasting session.Dinner in a cool-mountain setting completes the day.

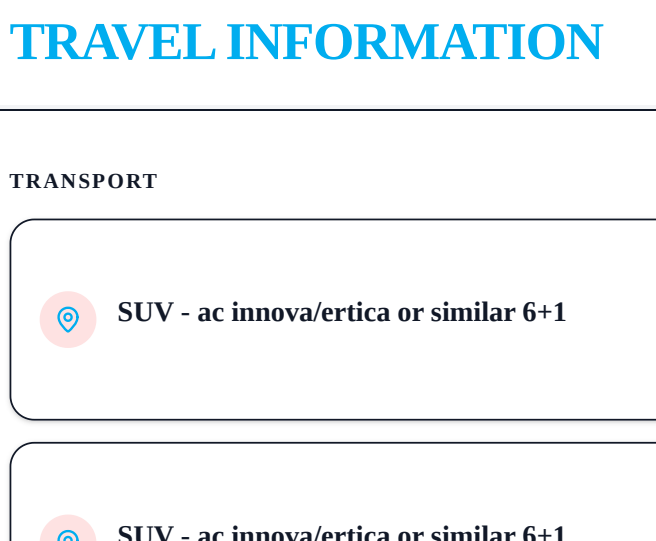

DAY 6

Munnar

Munnar nature and viewpoints: Eravikulam, tea museum and panoramic drives

Spend the day exploring Munnar's highlights: visit the Eravikulam National Park (home of the Nilgiri tahr), take a guided nature walk, and visit the Tea Museum to learn about the region's tea heritage. Drive to key viewpoints such as Echo Point and Top Station for dramatic valley views. Finish the day with a quiet evening at your property surrounded by misty hills.this is new testing for bullet points

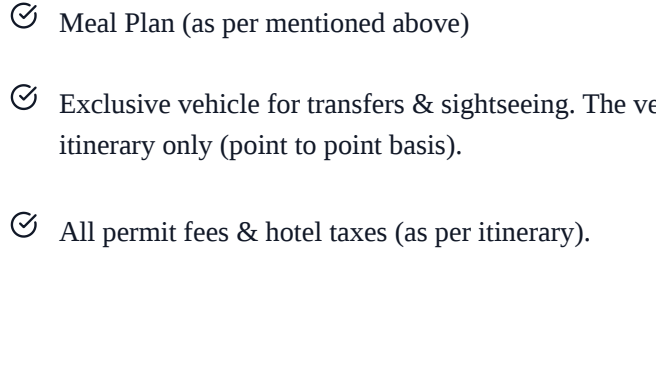

DAY 7

Munnar

Departure from Kerala: Return transfer and onward travel

After breakfast, enjoy a final stroll through the hill gardens or a short visit to a nearby market for souvenirs. Then transfer back to Cochin International Airport or your onward destination, bringing home the fragrances, landscapes and cultural memories of Kerala.
